7. The SG60 Vouchers place Singaporeans at the heart of the nation's 60th birthday celebrations, honouring the contributions each citizen has made to Singapore's journey and achievements.
8. Reflecting the inclusive spirit of SG60, the vouchers come with six specially designed postcards created by artists with different abilities.
9. Singaporeans will each receive one of these postcards by mail. Those aged 60 and above (born in 1965 or earlier) will receive their postcards from 1 July, while those aged 21 to 59 (born between 1966 and 2004) will receive theirs from 22 July.

11. Assistance for seniors and those who need help to claim the digital vouchers will be readily available at Community Centres/Clubs (CCs) and SG Digital Community Hubs. The Community Development Councils (CDCs) are collaborating with Public Service Division (PSD), youth and student volunteers to guide residents through the claiming process. In the first two weeks of the launch, about 200 volunteers from public agencies and school institutions such as ITE College West, Nanyang Polytechnic, and Tampines Meridian JC will be stationed at selected CCs, assisting residents alongside CDC Ambassadors.

Beyond this period, Singaporeans can continue to pick up digital skills for daily living, including redeeming SG60 Vouchers, through SDO's Digital Ambassadors at over 30 SG Digital Community Hubs and more than 200 roving counters island wide.

Benefitting Heartland Businesses and Strengthening the Local Economy

13. Even as we appreciate the contributions of Singaporeans, the SG60 Vouchers, like CDC Vouchers will also benefit heartland merchants and hawkers who remain vital pillars of our neighbourhoods. By encouraging spending at local shops and eateries, the scheme not only supports small businesses but also helps strengthen community ties and sustain the heartbeat of our local economy.
14. The CDCs continue to work closely with merchants to onboard them to the scheme and ensure seamless transactions. Participating businesses are marked by the signature CDC Voucher decals — teal for hawkers and heartland merchants, and yellow for supermarkets.
15. Residents can visit go.gov.sg/sg60voucher to find nearby participating merchants and learn more about how to claim and spend their SG60 vouchers.
